About Christelle Moser

This is the 5th year this race has been held in Midlothian. The race is being run for the third consecutive year in memory of Christelle Moser. Christelle joined the community of Midlothian in 2005, winning the hearts of many with her enthusiasm, energy and spirit. Many vividly remember her past participation in the 5K, as she quickly finished the race, and then repeatedly went back to encourage her running mates. She ran the final stretch with each member of her team to help them finish the run.

We mourned the unexpected loss of Christelle in 2008. The community remembers her zeal for life and her ability to inspire and encourage others.
